TRANSITIONAL PROGRAMS

Adult Education

For adults 18 and older who want to improve their basic skills, attain employment readiness skills, or earn a GED/High School Equivalency. Classes are offered at NRCC's Dublin and NRV Mall campuses and at adult learning centers in Floyd, Giles, Pulaski, and Radford. NRCC serves as the regional provider of Adult Education services in the New River Valley and is an official GED Testing Center.

Middle College

For young adults ages 18 – 24 who desire to increase college and career readiness. Middle College programs help students improve core academic skills, complete GED/High School Equivalency and develop workforce skills and general life skills.
