

Angels in The Attic

A ministry of Floyd County Angels Ministries, Inc.

Home

Angels in the Attic is located in the Town of Floyd, in Floyd County, Virginia, and is composed of two non-profit stores that rely on the sales of donated goods to fund a ministry which in turn provides ongoing monthly support for numerous Floyd County charitable organizations that feed the hungry, aid the needy, help children and the elderly, and provide for public safety.

Angels in the Attic is operated by the Floyd County Angels Ministries, Inc., a 501c3 non-profit organization almost entirely operated and managed by community volunteers.

The first of the two stores is named Angels in the Attic, and is a thrift store which carries a wide variety of items for the person and the home. The second is named Angels Boutique, which features collectibles, upscale resale clothing, and antiques. The two stores are located adjacent to each other, in downtown Floyd.

Also visit us on our Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/AngelsintheAtticFloydVa> or do a web search for the words Facebook Angels in the Attic Floyd

Angels in The Attic

SmartOne theme by Theme4Press • Powered by WordPress